

Global Tourism Economy Research Centre 世界旅遊經濟研究中心

Strategically based in Macao, the Global Tourism Economy Research Centre is an independent, non-profit international research organization with a special purview on tourism and travel development in Asia. Attuned to what is happening in the region through research and exchange platforms, the Center shares ideas with government bodies and travel and tourism-related stakeholders on how Asia's development will positively impact the world. The Centre's progressive and unique approach to aggregating and analyzing research from global authoritative bodies seeks to deliver solutions and advance ideas that will lead to the sustainable development of travel and tourism in the region and around the world.

Global Tourism Economy Forum 世界旅遊經濟論壇

Established in 2012 and located in Macao, the Global Tourism Economy Forum (GTEF) is an annual flagship event for the Centre and a leading international platform designed to promote sustainable development of the global tourism industry with a focus on China, and to bring about extensive and rewarding opportunities for tourism promotion, investment and cooperation. The Forum brings to play the city's role as an international platform to bridge countries and regions with common strategic and economic objectives, and connects public and private stakeholders in the tourism industry, thereby creating strategic partnership between them and facilitating moderate diversification of economic development.
